

Dr. Huey Hawkins, Jr. is a License of Clinical Social Work who has provided individual and group psychotherapy since 2000. He has worked therapeutically in post-secondary schools, the Family Court of St. Louis County, Washington University School of Medicine and in private practice (St. Louis). He has advanced training from the St. Louis Psychoanalytic Institute and the Institute for Clinical Social Work in Chicago, IL and most often treats depression, anxiety, and trauma in adults.